AMAZING TURKISH NIGHT

4th December 2021

Such an evening to remember!

Our Amazing Turkish Night event took place on Saturday 4th December 2021 from 4pm at the beautiful Marriott Marquis Hotel Sukhumvit, Bangkok Thailand. We had an amazing night celebrating all together with delicious food, having a Turkish buffet, wine tasting as well as enjoying our very talented TTA band throughout the night.

We also enjoyed a variety of activities, videos and presentations from our President and TTA secretary.

The night also consisted of two lucky draws that entailed a variety of great prizes, from house decorations to boat party tickets and even hotel packages for luxurious hotels in both Bangkok and Krabi.

We would like to thank everyone that joined us on our special night, and we loved seeing everyone who attended. We hope everyone had a memorable night to remember and TTA are looking forward to events and evenings like this in the future.

More photographs can be found on our Facebook page in an Album titled the event " Amazing Turkish Night 4th December".

DELICIOUS THAI DISHES

Written by Naomi Redfern

Thailand is known for their delicious food and wide variety and mixture of savory to sweet foods. It is sure to be one of the most popular types of cuisines across the world. Traditional Thai food is known to be full of flavor and famous for being spicy yet extremely tasty. Here are five of some of the most popular meals and desserts to try when in Thailand or visiting on holiday, that can easily be found on side streets, markets and restaurants and are usually highly affordable.

Somtām: A very popular dish that originates from the North East parts of Thailand is also known as Papaya salad. This dish can be prepared in a variety of ways and is usually made spicy and served with sticky rice. Somtam uses a unique ingredient and the most popular way of being made is by adding crab and fermented fish sauce.

Boat Noodles: Thai style noodle dish that is strong in flavor. It contains both pork and beef, as well as dark soy sauce, pickled bean curd, and some other spices. It is normally served with your choice of noodle and meatballs and pig's liver.

Khanom Khrok: A sweet coconut milk dessert with a variety of toppings such as sweet corn. Khanom Khrok is also known as a coconut-rice pancakes and is a traditional Thai dessert. It is prepared by mixing rice flour, sugar, and coconut milk to form a dough. Khanom Khrok is composed of two batters, one salty and one sweet, both of which are cooked in a heating mantle—a hot indented frying pan and can be found at many night markets and street food stalls for an inexpensive price.

Krapow: This has to be by far one of the most popular dishes for Thai people to order and a very common dish to be served in restaurants and stalls as is usually always to be found on the menu. This dish is a stir fry basil and chili dish that is served with a variety of choice of meats but is most popular with minced pork and served paired with a fried egg.

Salim: Sweet Noodles in sweet Coconut Milk is a traditional Thai dessert of multi-colored mung bean flour noodles or threads, topped with sweetened flavored coconut milk and served over crushed ice. It is popular across Thailand and can be found at many local markets sold with other traditionally Thai desserts or traditional Thai restaurants.

FAREWELL BRUNCH

On Tuesday 14th December 2021, TTA said our farewells at a delicious dinner at 51 Live Gastro for our amazing super team. Our super team of interns have been doing a fantastic job for TTA and the community at Turkish Thai Association. We would like to thank Cotton Lau, Rodrigo Bezuidenhout and Naomi Redfern, for all their hard work and dedication to TTA. It has been a wonderful journey with you all on board and I'm sure we will stay in contact with them and we wish the three of them the best of luck for their future ahead.

WEBINAR SERIES 14

20th December 2021

Team Building- Online? But how? We had a great unique webinar on Monday 20th December 2021, where we even got the opportunity to have hands on experience on team building taking part in team building activities as a group. We were lucky enough to have guest speaker Mr Robin Schroeter; Actor, Director and Co-founder of Masterclass studios. Robin took the time to lead the activities with us and teach us tips and tricks of how team building can be held online yet be fun and energetic to keep the atmosphere lively so we can manage challenges in a business environment easier. We learnt how to increase actively working together as a team, improving communications and we also had the opportunity to listen to his experiences and tips.

NEWS UPDATE

Cited by Bangkok Post

The government has decided to temporarily suspend the entry of both Thais and foreign arrivals under the "Test & Go" scheme and restore mandatory quarantine in a bid to keep the Omicron coronavirus variant at bay.

Prime Minister Prayut Chan-o-cha said the government would stop approving new applications for Test & Go entries except to the Phuket Sandbox until 4 January.
